

Second International Conference on Lived Catholicism
Paradox and Prophecy: Why the Study of Lived Catholicism Matters
15th-16th November 2021

Programme at 7th September

| | |
|-----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Monday 15th November | |
| Session 1 2pm-3.20pm | Welcome and introduction Avril Baigent: Chair of Conference organising team Dr Mathew Guest, Head of Department of Theology and Religion, Durham University Presentation 1: Professor Massimo Faggioli Chair: Dr Marcus Pound, Durham University Followed by questions and responses submitted via chat. Concluding word: Professor Paul D. Murray, Dean-Director, Centre for Catholic Studies, Durham University |
| BREAK (15 mins) | |
| Session 2 3.35pm-4.45pm | Sites of Paradox and Prophecy: Short Papers Part One <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Participants will be invited to select a stream to join on the day. • Speakers and abstracts will be available on the conference website. • Comments and responses can be submitted via chat. |
| Break (15 mins) | |
| Session 3 5pm-6pm | Presentation 2: Dr Michele Dillon, University of New Hampshire Chair: Dr Pat Jones, Durham University Followed by questions and responses submitted via chat. |
| BREAK (30 mins) | |
| Session 4 6.30pm-7.30pm | Pop-Up Podium <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Several streams of poster presentations lasting 5 minutes. • Participants will be invited to select a stream to join. • The speakers and abstracts of their papers will be available on the conference website. • Comments and responses can be submitted via chat. |
| Tuesday 16th November | |
| Session 5 11am-12.30pm | Presentation 3: Dr Clare Watkins, Roehampton University Chair: Gaël Pardoën, University of Durham Followed by questions and responses submitted via chat, and breakout groups. |

| | |
|---------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| BREAK 45 mins | |
| Session 6 1.15pm- 2.30pm | Sites of Paradox and Prophecy: Short Papers Part Two. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Participants will be invited to select a stream to join on the day. • Speakers and abstracts will be available on the conference website. • Comments and responses can be submitted via chat. |
| BREAK 20 mins | |
| Session 7 2.50pm- 4.10pm | Presentation 4: Professor Valentina Napolitana, University of Toronto Chair: Dr Anna Rowlands, Durham University Followed by questions and responses submitted via chat. |
| BREAK 20 mins | |
| Session 8 4.30pm- 5.40pm | Workshop: details to be confirmed later. |
| BREAK 20 mins | |
| Session 9 6pm-7pm | Plenary - Paradox and Prophecy: why the study of Lived Catholicism matters? Bringing together scholars from across the disciplines to unpack the possibilities of this emerging field. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chair: Avril Baigent • Closing Remarks. |